

Students in Japan Stage Wild Riots

TOKYO (AP) — Nearly 1,000 students were arrested and at least 150 injured in a wild nationwide series of antiwar riots and demonstrations Monday.

A four-hour rampage at Tokyo's Shinjuku railway station was one of the city's worst riots in years and authorities invoked an antiriot law for the first time in 16 years. The law provides for imprisonment from six months to 10 years.

The major labor unions claimed 800,000 persons took part in some 600 demonstrations across Japan. It was the unions' third Antiwar Day observance.

Police said at least 757 students had been arrested in Tokyo, while lesser disturbances resulted in the arrest of 93 in Osaka, 31 in Fukuoka, 18 in Aichi and 12 in Hokkaido.

Much of Tokyo's Shinjuku station was a shambles after 6,000 students attacked it. The station is a key link between suburban and central lines, and thousands of commuters were delayed as workers tried to clear away debris and get trains moving again. The first morning train was delayed four hours.

The students used heavy logs to batter down 10-foot-high steel walls that police had put up around the station Sunday to protect it.

not win the popular vote Nov. 5 so can hope only for an Electoral College deadlock that would throw the election into the House of Representatives.

"His only hope," Nixon said, "is to get Mr. Wallace enough votes in enough states to deny Nixon the Electoral College."

Humphrey had said he thought he could govern effectively even if elected by the House after losing the popular vote. Nixon's interpretation brought a prompt reply from Humphrey's campaign manager, Lawrence F. O'Brien.

"What Mr. Humphrey said was that he will abide by the Constitution and will refuse to make any deals with respect to the presidency," O'Brien said in a statement. "Nixon, by what he is saying, is confirming that he is willing to make deals."

O'Brien in the past has claimed there are indications Nixon might be willing to deal for Wallace's electoral votes if none of the three candidates wins a popular majority Nov. 5.

Wallace chided hecklers who interrupted his efforts to explain his farm platform in Moline, Ill., Monday as "those people who believe in free speech."

His farm program includes a boost of farm price supports to 100 per cent of parity, a cut-off level on federal subsidies to prevent "unfair advantage" to large corporate farms and establishment of a watchdog commission to oversee federal farm programs.

Wallace's running mate, retired Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, said earlier he found a frustration among fighting men during his recent Vietnam trip because "after defeating the enemy, they cannot pursue and destroy them."

New Gun Law Registration

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The city gun registration law was ruled invalid Monday by the state District Court of Appeals which said it partially conflicts with state statutes and, "We do not think that distinctly local concern indicates the necessity nor the advisability of diverse local systems of firearms registration and licensing."

The ordinance requiring registration of all guns at $1 each was adopted last July after the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. City officials said the court ruling would be appealed. Enforcement was delayed pending the court ruling.

Gun Control Law Awaits Signing

By JOHN CHADWICK Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed today a gun control law restricting interstate sale of rifles, shotguns, and ammunition. He said it was the most comprehensive gun control law ever signed, but that "not nearly enough" had been done.

The President had called for licensing of gun owners and registration of all firearms, but he said "the voices of a powerful lobby—a gun lobby" have prevailed "for the moment in an election year."

"Big as this bill is, it still falls short," the President said because of the lack of licensing and registration provisions.

In a Cabinet room bill signing, Johnson declared: "Today we begin to disarm the criminals, the careless and the insane." He said "All people in the country concerned about law and order should hail this day."

Passage of the bill gained impetus after the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Bernard Denies Any Ties With Hunt

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Charles T. Bernard, the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, has disavowed any ties with Texas oilman H. L. Hunt and also challenged his opponent, Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to debate the issues on television.

Bernard, a farmer-businessman from Earle, told a news conference Monday that he would reject any contribution from Hunt and said his wife received in the mail last Saturday a campaign packet "evidently sent out by Mr. Hunt."

He said none of the material, which came in two envelopes with Hunt's return address on them, was signed.

One piece of literature was entitled "Fulbright Has a Habit of Giving Away American Money" and another contained a typed memorandum which said, "The battle between the church and atheism is reaching an all-time high and attempts are being made to destroy the tenets of Christianity. I am enclosing a memo of quotes from Fulbright's book, 'Old Myths and New Realities,' in which he makes light of every God-fearing person."

"I believe Mr. Hunt is a well-meaning man, but I refuse to be made a part of any conspiracy to interfere in Arkansas politics by an outsider," Bernard said. "I do not feel that outsiders should participate in Arkansas politics."

Bernard said that Fulbright

Allison to Give Data to Grand Juries

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ed Allison, the Republican candidate for state land commissioner, said Monday he plans to present to grand juries in at least two counties results of an investigation into Land Commissioner Sam Jones' operation of a lumber business out of the state Land Department offices.

"We have found that Jones is operating a lumber business out of the state Land Department offices at the state capitol and using Land Department personnel in its operations," Allison told a news conference.

He said the investigation was conducted by a group of Young Republicans and that it was incomplete. He said he planned to present the results to grand juries at least in Mississippi and Poinsett counties.

Allison said, however, that he would file no charges himself.

He said Jones was "violating his public trust by using state offices, state employees and the influence of his office" in operating a lumber business.

Jones said it was common knowledge throughout the lumber business that he had been in the timber and lumber business for 35 years.

had campaigned "by telling people he is responsible for all the good that has come to the state. He has not discussed the issues, he has not talked about his view on the things the people of Arkansas are interested in having discussed."

Labor Union Can Be Sued, Court Rules

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court, in a 5-2 decision, held Monday that a labor union can be sued for wrongful injuries.

The high court also quashed an injunction by Circuit Court Judge Russell C. Roberts of Conway and allowed Ralph V. Childers to become chairman of the Republican party in Conway County.

The labor union decision came in a Sebastian County case in which Mrs. Juanita Thomas, 35, an employee of General Electric Corp. at Fort Smith, filed a lawsuit against the United Auto Workers and nine of its members.

Mrs. Thomas alleged physical and mental injuries, threats and harassment, libel and slander.

Chancellor Richard Mobley of Russellville had dismissed the complaint on the ground that the union could not be sued for civil damages.

Associate Justice Conley Byrd wrote in the majority opinion that in view of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions and recent legislation requiring unions to file copies of their constitutions and by-laws with the U.S. Labor secretary, "we seriously doubt that a labor union can any longer be considered a non-entity."

Chief Justice Carleton Harris and Associate Justice J. Fred Jones dissented.

Mrs. Thomas sought $100,000 from the individual members and $500,000 punitive damages from the UAW.

In the Conway County case, Childers and John Oliver, who represented a rival faction in the county GOP, disputed the party chairmanship. On Sept. 26 Roberts issued a temporary order restraining Childers from acting as chairman.

The decision brought an immediate fight since the state GOP had certified Childers' group to the state GOP convention.

Richard S. Arnold of Texarkana, attorney for Childers, told the court Monday that the matter was not an issue for Roberts to decide.

Arnold said the courts could not interfere with the election of party officials and that Arkansas law leaves party matters to the party machinery.

In a per curiam order, the high court reversed Roberts' decision, saying, "On the record that order is deemed to be erroneous and is set aside."

In another case the court said that a 1955 act requiring independent candidates for public office to pay a filing fee equal to the highest fee set by one of the political parties was unconstitutional.

The court, said, in a unanimous decision, that Act 68 of 1955 was unconstitutional because it delegates the legislature's authority.

The law says that independent candidates, in addition to the $3 ballot fee, must pay an additional filing fee equal to the highest fee for that office set by either of the major parties.

SHOVER SPRINGS

Harold Sparks joined the Shover Springs 4-H Club at its meeting October 15 at 7 p.m. in the Shover Springs Fellowship Hall.

President Lanette Arrington called the meeting to order, and Paula Poindexter led the group in singing "America."

The club pledge and the pledge of allegiance were led by Mark Sparks and Sheryl Bright, and the latter also served as secretary, reading the minutes and calling the roll. In addition to the members, Mrs. E.O. Bright, Mrs. Homer Poindexter and David and Mollie Ehler were also guests.

Paula Poindexter reported on a scrapbook committee meeting, and Lanette Arrington told about the 4-States Fair Dress Review held at Texarkana. Then, the two demonstrated "How to Make Christmas Decorations."

Gary Arrington gave a devotion from Ecclesiastes 12:9-14, A trio, Lanette Arrington, Paula Poindexter, and Sheryl Bright, sang "Burning Bridges." County Home Economist Dolores McBride showed an educational film, "Lassie's Litter Bit," to the club, which proved of special interest because of the members' work in Litterbug Campaigns.

Refreshments were served by the Homer Poindexters to 12.

SAFETY DISCUSSED AT HD MEETING

"Safety in the Home" was the Lesson taught to the Shover Springs Extension Homemakers Club by Mrs. Darrell Dillon, when it met in her home on Thursday, October 10. She also read 1st John 3: 4, 5 for the devotion.

To start the meeting, Mrs. Gene Dillard had the Eye Opener, and Mrs. Homer Poindexter led in singing "In the Garden." Earlier, on October 2, as a club project, the president, Mrs. Clifton East, and 5 members, Mrs. Floyd Mangum, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Homer Poindexter, Mrs. Wilton Mullins, and Mrs. Bill Dillon, went to Branch Hospital and helped some of the nursing home residents make pillows out of wash cloths.

Those attending the October 10 meeting concluded it by repeating the Homemakers Prayer. There were 14 members and 6 children present.

Afterwards, a surprise housewarming was given the hostess by the club. They were joined by Mrs. Weston Green, Mrs. Kenneth Burger, Mrs. H.B. Sanford, and Mrs. Howard Reece for the party.

Mrs. Darrell Dillon was called to the door and when she opened it, everyone said, "Surprise." Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mullins, Mrs. Poindexter, Mrs. East, and Mrs. Bill Dillon from a table covered with a lace cloth. Twenty-five enjoyed punch, cookies, nuts, and mints. As they left, all wished Mrs. Dillon much happiness in her new home.

At last Pat was the proud possessor of two telephones and a Plaza number, which she promptly gave to some close friends. A few days later she realized that nobody but these clued-in few was calling. Investigation uncovered that information was giving out the other number—the one the original installer had arrived with, and the calls weren't going through.

Although enjoying the relative quiet of an unringing phone, Pat thought it wise to have a friendly chat with her neighborhood telephone office.

At this point, Pat has a white telephone, a beige extension, one slightly used Plaza number, one unused less desirable number. Now no calls are getting through and she is waiting for the repairman. She hopes only one shows up.

Statistics in SWC Are Staggering

DALLAS, Tex., (AP) — A rather staggering statistic from last weekend's Southwest Conference football battles: Four touchdowns were insufficient for victory in any of the four games.

An example of how offense is dominating the play this season is the fact that Texas Tech managed to retain the average per-game defensive lead (317.8) despite a yield of 452 yards to Mississippi State which the Red Raiders managed to tie 28-28.

Southern Methodist's terrific threesome of Chuck Hixson, Mike Richardson and Jerry Levias continue to dominate the offensive statistics.

Hixson, the nation's leading passer, has completed 135 of 241 passes for 1,585 yards and nine touchdowns. Richardson has picked up 515 yards rushing on 103 tries for four touchdowns—a five-yards-per-carry average. Hixson leads in total offense with 1,590 yards.

Levias, the nation's leading receiver, has caught 44 passes for 645 yards and four touchdowns. He is averaging 14.7 yards per catch.

Jim Livingston of SMU is leading the SWC in interceptions with six.

Steve Worster of Texas is the scoring leader with seven touchdowns for 42 points.

Mike Hall of Texas Christian is the leading punter with a 43.1 average on 31 kicks. Bubba Thornton of TCU leads in kick-off returns with 11 for 265 yards and Larry Alford of Texas Tech has 19 punt returns for 307 yards.

In team statistics, SMU is leading in total offense and passing offense. Texas is the leading rushing team.

The Mustangs have an average of 448 yards per game in total offense and 1,605 yards per game in passing offense. Texas is averaging 268.2 yards per game on the ground.

Tech has the best rushing defense, allowing only 137.4 yards per game while Texas has the best passing defense, allowing an average of 132.6 yards per game.

U.S. Olympic Cagers Face Stiff Test

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
MEXICO CITY (AP) — The U.S. basketball team, a pick-up squad spurred by many of the nation's top collegiate stars, faces perhaps its toughest Olympic test tonight against Brazil.

The Americans haven't lost a game since the sport was introduced into the Games in 1932, but Coach Henry Iba is worried — severely so — about his semifinal match.

"If we handle the ball the way we did against Puerto Rico, we will lose," Iba said.

"Brazil is a strong, fast team."

The Yankee team, lacking such stars as Lew Alcindor and Elvin Hayes, just got by Tiny Puerto Rico 61-56 in its last outing.

And while Iba was worrying, tall Lynn McClements of Australia found out that America's swimmers are human after all.

"When I came to Mexico, I was very frightened of the American swimmers," said the 17-year-old secretary from Perth.

"But when I saw them, I found they were human beings just like myself."

So she promptly broke the American stranglehold on swimming gold medals Monday, winning the women's 100-meter butterfly in 1:05.5. She was followed, naturally enough, by two Americans who, while human, continue to dominate these 19th Games.

The United States picked up 11 more medals, including four golds, and now leads the massive Russian forces by its widest margin so far.

The Americans have a total of 64 medals, 28 of them gold. The Russians have only 39, 13 of them gold. They picked up only two golds Monday, in team saber and Finn dinghy sailing.

Russia's track and field coach, Gabriel Korobkov, had some words to say about it:

"It is unfair to hold the Games at this altitude," he said of this 1½ mile high city. "Most of the world lives downstairs. They hold the Olympics upstairs. The Games are thrown out of balance."

Among the United States' 11 medals collected Monday were four gold, two in yachting and two in swimming, including a 1-2-3 sweep in the men's 100-meter butterfly.

Doug Russell, from Midland, Tex., led that parade, scoring his first victory over Mark Spitz, the world record holder from Santa Clara, Calif. Ross Wales, Youngstown, Ohio, was third. The time was 55.9.

"I thought I could beat Mark, and I was determined to do it tonight," Russell said.

The defeat knocked Spitz out of a chance to tie or better teammate Don Schollander's record of four gold medals, set in Tokyo in 1964. "The 400-meter medley butterfly leg goes to the winner of the fly, Spitz said.

MORE MORE
Spitz already has two golds for relays, a silver in the butterfly and a bronze for the 100 freestyle. He goes in the 200-meter butterfly, for which he holds the world record, Thursday.

Just 42 minutes after losing to Russell, he swam the third leg on the United States' victorious 800-meter freestyle relay team, giving Schollander a lead of about 2½ meters.

Schollander held most of it against an Australian challenge. Russia was a distant third. The winning time was 7:52.3.

Ellie Daniels, Elkins Park, Pa., and Sue Shields, Louisville, Ky., were second and third behind Miss McClements' winning 1:05.5 in the women's butterfly.

Porkers Are Beset by Injuries

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas worked out in sweat clothes Monday, attempting to correct mistakes made in its first loss of the season last Saturday at Austin where Texas posted a 39-29 triumph.

The Razorbacks also heard the scouting report on North Texas State, Arkansas' next foe.

Gary Adams, who sat out the final quarter with an ailing nerve in his neck and a virus, worked out Monday but two other Porkers injured in the Texas game—David Dickey and Bruce Maxwell—did not practice.

Reports on the condition of Dickey and Maxwell are that neither will likely see action against North Texas.

In the other, Debbie Meyer, Sacramento, Calif., goes for her second gold in the 200-meter freestyle, in which she holds the world record. With Jane Barkman, Wayne, Pa., and Jan Henne, Oakland, Calif., also entered, it could be another American sweep.

Buddy Friedrichs of New Orleans, La., in the Dragon class in Willaway, and Lowell North of San Diego, with crewman Peter Barrett of Seal Beach, Calif., in the Star class with North Star, confirmed their yachting victories that they had clinched the day before.

The United States also picked up a silver in shooting from Lt. John Writer, stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., in the small bore rifle, with 1,156 of a possible 1,200.

The event was won by Bernd Klingner of West Germany with 1,157, and Russian Vitaly Parkhlovich third.

Another silver came in team equestrian, won by Great Britain with Australia third.

There were a couple of controversies. The Russian equestrian team was found to be using walkie talkies and disqualified. But they were reinstated when they pointed out an interpreter was not present at the briefings.

Porkers Dip to 16th in Grid Poll

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Explosive Ohio State shaved Southern California's lead to 16 points today in The Associated Press' major college football poll.

The Trojans, who needed some last-quarter heroics by fabulous O. J. Simpson to subdue lowly Washington 14-7 over the weekend, held a 21-15 edge over Ohio State in first place votes.

But the Buckeyes, 4-0 after routing Northwestern 45-21, used strong second and third ball strength to amass 784 points to Southern Cal's even 800.

Last week, when the defending national champs took over the top spot for the first time this season, they held a 46-point edge over Ohio State.

Meanwhile, the rest of the top 10 underwent some minor shuffling as Kansas moved into third place, trading spots with idle No. 4 Penn State.

The Jayhawks, 5-0 after trouncing Oklahoma State 49-14, were named first on five ballots, while Penn State, 4-0, drew one top vote.

Notre Dame, 4-1, advanced from sixth to fifth after humiliating Illinois 58-8. Tennessee, 4-0-1, moved from eighth to sixth after nipping Alabama 10-9.

Purdue, 4-1, which had to struggle for a 28-27 conquest of Wake Forest, continued its downslide, dropping from fifth to seventh. The Bollermakers had been ranked No. 1 until a loss to Ohio State Oct. 12.

Georgia jumped from 10th to eighth on the strength of a 32-6 coast past Vanderbilt. Miami, Fla., climbed from 12th to ninth following a 13-8 victory over Virginia Tech. Miami's only loss in five games has been to Southern Cal.

Miami, Fla., climbed from 12th to ninth following a 13-8 victory over Virginia Tech. Miami's only loss in five games has been to Southern Cal.

Syracuse, 3-1, idle over the weekend, moved up a notch to tenth.

Florida, seventh last week, dropped all the way to 15th after losing to North Carolina 22-7.

California, which vanished from the rankings last week after losing to Army, made it back Tuesday into the No. 11 spot after blasting UCLA 39-15.

Michigan, with an opening loss to California—the only blemish on its record—was 12th, up five spots, after turning back Indiana 27-22.

Texas leaped from 17th to 13th with a 39-29 victory over Arkansas that dropped the Razorbacks from ninth to 16th. Missouri soared from 20th to 14th with a 16-14 edging of Nebraska that pushed the Huskers out of the No. 20 spot.

Joining Nebraska in dropping out of the top 20 were Stanford (14th last week), after a 21-21 tie with Washington State, and Indiana (19th).

Haywood Wants to Be Actor, Not Cager

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
MEXICO CITY (AP) — Spencer Haywood, towering center on the U.S. Olympic basketball team, aspires to be an actor but his future probably lies in trying to upstage Will "The Stilt" Chamberlain and Oscar "Big O" Robertson in the rich professional game.

"This boy is young but he has to be one of the greatest," Hank Iba of Oklahoma State, veteran coach of the American team, said today. "He has natural talent. I don't see how he can miss."

A few weeks ago, Haywood, a 6-foot-8 stringbean from Detroit, was virtually unknown. Today he is regarded as the spark that probably will ignite the American team to its eighth straight Olympic gold medal without loss of a game.

He has averaged more than 20 points a game. He is leading the team in rebounding. His clever ball-handling, Houdini-like faking and moves have made him the standout of the American ragamuffins.

The Americans begin the final round of the Olympic round robin tonight, playing the strong Brazilian team at 9:30 p.m., CST (11:30 p.m., EDT) in a game that will be televised in the United States by ABC. The Soviet Union, like the Americans unbeaten in the tournament, play Yugoslavia in an earlier game.

"Brazil is tough," said Iba. "We could lose if we don't handle the ball better than we did against Puerto Rico."

The United States edged Puerto Rico, coached by New York University's Lou Rossini, 61-56.

If both Russia and the United States win, they clash in the championship game Friday. The Russians, with three 7-footers, are favored.

Failure of Houston's Elvin "Big E" Hayes, UCLA's Lew Alcindor, Mike Warren and Lucius Allen and Wes Unseld of Louisville to come out for the team left the Americans with a patch-work outfit that entered the Olympics an underdog for sas, Bill Hosket of Ohio State and Ken Spain of Houston, have suddenly changed the tide.

Haywood settled his long, skinny legs on the steps of the American headquarters at the Olympic Village Monday, a day off, and told how he suddenly was projected into the limelight of his life.

"I was playing with Trinidad State Junior College and I decided I was going to make the Olympic team," he said. "I figured the man I had to beat out was Hayes."

"He had been getting a lot of publicity. I watched him on television. I studied his moves."

"I felt I was a better player. I believed I could dribble better and shoot better from the outside. First, I made the junior college squad at Hutchinson, Kan., and then I went to Albuquerque, N.M., for the main tryouts."

"Of course, Hayes didn't show up. Neither did Alcindor."

Alcindor preferred to stay in school. Others preferred not to risk lucrative pro contracts. Haywood made the team easily.

Haywood was born in Silver City, Miss., the son of a carpenter. His father died a month before he was born and his mother was put on relief, with eight children's mouths to feed.

As the children grew up, they took over more of the responsibility but Spencer was shuttled back and forth among brothers and sisters. He went to Detroit when he was 10½, later to Chicago. He always had to return to Silver City for school.

He got a scholarship to the University of Tennessee but failed to pass entrance examinations.

Haywood recently entered the University of Detroit.

"I am majoring in dramatics," he said. "I want to be an actor. I have three years more of college before I can sign with the pros."

"I am anxious to play pro ball and act on the side. I get impatient sometimes, but it looks like a nice future. I can wait."

Bobcat Foes Continue to Be Tough

By RALPH ROUFON
Star Sports Writer
If you think that the going was tough for the Bobcats last week, you must not have looked at this Friday's opponent, the undefeated Magnolia Panthers.

Presently 7-0 and No. 6 in the state in this week's Top Ten, Magnolia provides the sametype of test as Fairview, in that they do not actually know the strain of a tight game. That nearly cost Fairview, when the Bobcats ran them off the field statistically and by 14-13 on the board in the first half.

A key to this week's contest will be the availability of junior Ronny Brown, the two-way starter and placekicker. Already having suffered bruised ribs against Texarkana Washington, Brown knocked up his knee a bit early in the Fairview battle. He may be able to play against Magnolia, but certainly not at full speed.

If Brown can not assume regular duties at defensive end, there could be wholesale shuffling in the defensive line to fill his absence. Phil Watkins finished the last half for Brown last Friday, and could start. At Brown's offensive guard slot should be soph Calvin Willis, a 170-pounder who has filled in well with the line.

While Hope is now virtually out of the 4-AA West race, Magnolia has already clinched the East title with a 4-0 mark and only hapless El Dorado Washington remaining. Camden wrapped it up for the Panthers last week by clubbing the favored Crossett Eagles 16-0.

Generally, Magnolia will show better size than Fairview with more experience, but the Panthers are much slower and do not fire off as fast. If the Bobcats can hit with the authority that cut up several Fairview Cardinals in that bloodbath, then Hope won't be in trouble.

The Panthers' best game has been a 26-7 win over highly-touted Crossett, who has turned out so well since then. The closest game Magnolia has had was a 12-0 shutout of 4-AA West Arkadelphia, the only loss of the season for the Badgers.

On offense the Panthers show up in a slot formation with the slot end split wide, instead of the Hope setup where the end is only a couple of yards away from the tackle. Their most potent weapon has to be tailback Robert Hasley, who ran all over Hope for nearly 150 yards last year.

Hasley ran at fullback a year ago as a soph, but now can run from more varied series over at tailback. The advantage Magnolia displays is the two-plateon system, which sends in a fresh team each time the ball changes hands.

What could be an upset factor is Magnolia's next opponent, namely Fairview. The Panthers easily could be looking ahead, more or less being too confident of the Hope game. This nearly killed Fairview, and it could be a hindrance before the Panthers' home fans this Friday night.

Shooting for their third consecutive win, the Bobkittens look to Thursday night's showdown with the Magnolia Panther Cubs at Hammons Stadium.

Now 4-1 for the season, the Bobkittens are coming hard off the Homecoming 19-0 win over Nashville, and Coach Solomon's boys are brimming with confidence and that blessed intangible, winning spirit. No injuries of significance have been reported as of late, even though the Kittens are running low on depth.

By the way, Stamps forfeited the "B" game slated for last night to our "B" Lizards, who now boast of a 5-2 record. Next Monday night the "B" Lizards travel to Arkadelphia for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff, before closing the nine-game schedule at Magnolia on November 11.

LYNN DAVIS GETS THE JOB DONE

Lynn Davis didn't ask why gambling hadn't been stopped before. He just put the axe to the slots and dice tables, and got the job done.

Now he wants to play an even bigger role for you, as Secretary of State. You can count on him to get the job done.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

He who increases the endearments of life, increases at the same time the terrors of death. —Young said it.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

The fourth and last quarterly conference will be held at Bethel A.M.E. Church Sunday October 27th, and the business session will be held Monday October 28th, at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. R. N. Thomas, Presiding Elder of the Prescott District will preach at the 11:00 a.m. service Sunday. At 3:00 p.m., a pre-conference will be held at the church, at which time all churches of the district will make their conference budget reports. All the choirs of the district will participate in the service.

At 7:30 p.m. Sunday a musical program will be presented as a background for the preaching service. Rev. J. E. Hughes, Pastor.

COMING AND GOING

Professor and Mrs. S. M. Wyatt of Memphis, Tennessee were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Davenport and daughter.

OBITUARIES

Belinda Ann Carrigan, aged 22 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hughey Lee Carrigan, passed away Friday October 18, 1968.

She is survived by her parents, one sister Ramona Lynn Carrigan, two brothers, Jeffrey and Johnny Carrigan; a grandmother, Mrs. Amlee Carrigan, one grandfather, Mr. Paul Porter, a great grandmother, Mrs. Trudie Cheatham.

Funeral service will be held at the Macedonia Baptist Church, Wednesday October 23rd, at 1:30 p.m. Burial in Macedonia Cemetery, Hicks Funeral Home, Inc., in charge.

Mr. Albert Williams passed away at his home in Malvern, Arkansas, October 19.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later.

Mr. Will Logan, a longtime resident of Hope, passed away in a local hospital October 22. He was the husband of Mrs. Ophelia Logan.

Funeral arrangements are in-

James Guy Tucker Jr., a Little Rock attorney, spoke at the regular noon luncheon of Hope Lions Club yesterday at Town & Country. The former marine who has just returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam discussed the proposed constitutional convention.

Mr. Tucker discussed the five constitutions Arkansas has had, the first on becoming a state in 1836; the second in 1861 when joining the Confederacy and the leaving the Confederacy was the third; the fourth in 1868 when re-entering the and the fifth and present was written in 1874. At the time Little Rock was a city of 12,000 and is now over 200,000.

At that time the governor's salary was set at $10,000; the attorney general $6,000 and other constitutional offices at $5,000. At the time this was very good pay but now rates among the lowest in the nation.

Then, and still, cities were allowed to levy only a five mill tax and modern needs call for more leeway.

There are 100 delegates to be elected and the estimated cost of the convention ranges from $150,000 to $450,000. The delegates are supposed to be non-partisan and whatever they revision decided upon will have to be voted on by the people.

Andy Andrews was program chairman and Harry Hawthorne was a guest of Jimmie Griffin.

complete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

AID PROGRAM
 There will be a Pastor's Aid Program at Mount Zion C.M.E. Church here in Hope, Wed. Oct. 23, at 7:30 p.m. There will be seven guest Ministers from Mt. Zion, Ark. who will bring a ten minute sermon pertaining to Thanksgiving. All Churches are invited to come out and worship in this meeting. Rev. H. R. Dotts, Pastor.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The world's oceans, ice fields, lakes, rivers, soils, rocks and atmosphere contain some 326 million cubic miles of water. The World Almanac says. Although much of this moisture may be presently inaccessible or in an unusable state, man draws on less than 1 percent of the supply. The average use of water per person in the United States is between 20 and 80 gallons a day.

| Opening lead—♥ 6 |             |             |

The Card School in New York has been teaching bridge for a long time. The expert players who head the staff have devised a questionnaire to determine whether or not a prospective pupil belongs in an elementary, intermediate or advanced class.

Today's hand covers the one question on play. They show their pupil the North and South hands and ask, "West opens the six of hearts against your three no-trump contract.
What card do you play from dummy?"

The answer to the question is that you play the king of hearts. There is an old rule of second hand low but this is the time to break that rule because if you play the eight from dummy you are getting no value out of the king.

The way we have set up the hand the king will hold. Then all South has to do in order to insure his contract is to lead the jack of diamonds from dummy and let it ride. If the finesse works, South will make at least 10 tricks. If it loses, but South is still sure to wind up with his contract since he can now count on a minimum of two spades, one heart, four diamonds and two clubs.

Change the hand around so that East holds the ace of hearts. He will take the king with it and return the suit.

In this case South must let the defense hold the second heart. He will be forced to win the third heart lead but as long as West opened a four- or five-card suit, South will be sure of his contract.
He will simply finesse against West in diamonds. If the finesse works, he makes at least 10 tricks; if it loses he makes at least nine.

Of course, it is possible that West opened a three-card heart suit and that East held five hearts to the ace and the queen of diamonds. In that case South would not make his contract but that sort of opening lead is most unusual.

★CARD Sense★

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
Pass 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♣
Pass 3 ♠ Pass 1 ♠
Pass 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠
You, South, hold:
♠ A K 7 6 ♥ K Q 9 4 ♦ A J 8 7 6

What do you do now?

A—Bid four spades. You have a pretty good hand but it does not look almighty.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding one diamond, your partner has responded one spade to your opening club. What do you do now?

SHORT RIBS

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Q—What is sarcoid disease?
What causes it? Is it catching? Can it be cured?

A—Boeck's sarcoid or sar-coidosis is a fairly common disease, the cause of which is unknown. In some victims, allergy appears to be a causative factor. It is not contagious. It is characterized by the formation of hard nodules that may occur anywhere in the body but are found most often in the lungs, where they resemble the lesions of tuberculosis. Since the lesions are benign, they usually cause no symptoms and may be discovered as an incidental finding when a chest X ray is made.
Only about one-third of the victims need any treatment.
The cortisone-like drugs give the best results.

Q—If you have sarcoid disease of the lungs, is it harmful to do heavy work? Would this disease cause my mind to be short? Is it dangerous to take prednisone for a long time?

A—Shortness of breath that is aggravated by exertion would occur only if the lung involvement was very extensive. Prednisone may be taken for a year or more by a person who has sarcoidosis. If the dosage schedule is adjusted to meet your individual needs, the undesirable side effects can be avoided.

Q—What is lymphosarcoma and what causes it? Is there any cure for it?

A—This is a type of cancer of the lymph nodes. The cause is unknown. Although there is no permanent cure, deep X ray and several of the newer drugs can improve the condition.

Q—What infections cause an increase in the red blood cell sedimentation rate?

A—The cause of an increased sedimentation rate is sometimes hard to determine but it is characteristic of rheumatic heart disease, bacterial endocarditis and active pulmonary tuberculosis. It has also been observed in persons with leukemia, anemia, rheumatoid arthritis, cirrhosis of the liver, ulcerative colitis and a persistently high blood cholesterol level.
When the sedimentation rate is elevated, it puts your doctor on his guard to find out what is causing it.

Q—What is Pronestyl given for?

A—This derivative of procaine is given to re-establish normal heart beats in persons who have a very rapid or irregular pulse.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

CHRISTMAS CARDS TO THE TROOPS

Dear Helen: Thank you for sending me all those letters people wrote to me after you published my note from Vietnam in your column. I asked you then not to print my full name and address because my friends might see and think I was griping because they didn't write. But a lot of people took a chance and asked you to forward mail over here.

I have written to all I have time for (between battles and duties) and am turning the rest over to buddies.

I certainly appreciate your sending the letters. They have helped make my tour here a little bit better. In fact, a lot! SP 4 George A.A., Jr.

Dear George: So happy my readers helped! I don't print full names of fighting men for two reasons: 1. You might receive crank notes which could hurt morale. (Sad, but a few people are senseless cruel.) 2. You'd be so deluged with mail you couldn't handle it.

So I direct hopeful writers to Vietnam Mail Call instead. Here's a letter which shows you what your note inspired, George:

"Dear Helen: We have been flooded with mail in response to your column about the lonely G.I. George. In the first few days, 5,000 letters poured in and they're still coming!

"The men in Vietnam still call for more.

"Your and your readers are without a doubt the nicest people in the world. May I ask more help from you all?"

"Another Christmas approaches and our men are still serving in the sniper infested swamps of South Vietnam. AMERICA CAN MAKE IT A

Scheherazade

From the Arabian Nights tale of the fabulous lady who entertained the caliph with a never-ending story. This page was produced entirely within The Star plant except for development of the original 35mm. camera color film.

Alex. H. Washburn, editor, shot the photographs on Hi-Speed Ektachrome using a Contax camera and made the production separation negatives on The Star's 8x10 Berkey color separator.

Billy Dan Jones, mechanical superintendent, handled the Fairchild color press, and Gene Allen, process cameraman, made the press plates.

This is the team's 15th Color Show since beginning experiments with four-color process printing in January 1967.

Mountains of Mail for Astronauts

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Mountains of mail will greet the Apollo 7 astronauts when they return to earth-bound duty here.

Space agency spokesmen said they were still busy Monday counting and sorting the mail received here and at Cape Kennedy, Fla., in response to the three astronauts' nationally televised plea to "Keep those cards and letters coming."

It was estimated that more than 3,000 letters have filled Space Center mailboxes. Upwards of 500 have been received at Cape Kennedy, and more than 50 telegrams also are waiting to be read.

Apollo 7 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr., Walter Cunningham and Donn F. Eisele asked for the mail during one of their early Wally and Donn telecasts.

"Hi! We're going around in circles rooting for you guys," said one letter.

A fourth grader named Kenneth from Worth, Ill., had these thoughts in his letter:

"Dear astronauts, we all hope you the best of luck in your dangerous (sic) trip if you have some extra time I wish you could answer this letter with a few samepulls (sic) like the food you eat out there and a picture showing the suit on you and like on commercials do you have any food pills. . ."

Astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr., captain of the astronaut team, opened a few of the letters addressed generally to "Apollo 7," but said he considered the rest of the mail personal and meant only for the Apollo 7 trio.

"Here's one of the cards you asked for," wrote an 11-year-old boy from McKeesport, Pa. "I watched you on TV. It is very exciting. I sure wish all 3 of you good luck. God speed and a safe return to home base."

The space agency received a big envelope with 26 letters from the second grade of an elementary school in Palm Bay, Fla. An elementary school in Worth, Ill., sent 22 letters.

"The show was great. Keep those pictures coming. God bless you all," wrote an adult from Streetsboro, Ohio.

Letters To The Editor

This is your newspaper. Write to it. Address letters to: Editor The Star, P. O. Box 648, Hope, Ark. 71801.

All letters must be signed, with address, so you are identified to the newspaper staff, but if the character of the letter permits we will allow use of a pen-name in the publication, in which case you should add "Citizen," or some other word below your real name and address.

Pen-names are permitted when a letter deals only with issues. Direct attacks upon public officials, however, must bear the writer's name for publication.

REPUBLICAN REPLY

Editor The Star: We read with interest the letter to the editor in Monday's Hope Star by Sue Bruner, concerning yard signs destroyed. We think, as she does, that "although I do not agree with their stance, I certainly would not attempt to hinder or deny them the privilege to campaign for their choice of candidate."

In answer to her letter, we want to clarify several things: (1) Our Republican Party does not have an "unlimited expense account." Our Governor Rockefeller yard signs were put together by volunteers, mainly women and children. (Those of you who see us downtown at our rummage sales know we work hard for our money.) Nobody was paid to put our yard signs out and nobody was paid to put them in their yards. The yard signs have been a volunteer effort by those who believe in government. And speaking of "unlimited expense accounts", we know several of Mr. Crank's expenses have been paid for by a certain utility.

(2) Many of our yard signs have been stolen. Last Saturday night, Gov. Rockefeller signs were stolen all over Hope. All of our signs on Park Drive completely disappeared. We have replaced one sign on Park Drive four times. At one house by the high school our Rockefeller sign has disappeared at least three times. In our yards, yard signs (and they weren't Crank's) were stolen Saturday night. So we think Mrs. Bruner's inference that Gov. Rockefeller's supporters stole the Crank signs is not fair. We are not going to accuse her of "an apparent organized effort" of stealing Gov. Rockefeller's signs!

In fact, after the disappearance Saturday night of so many Gov. Rockefeller yard signs, our Republican County Committee decided Sunday to offer a $25 reward to any person who could give information leading to the arrest and conviction of a person or persons stealing yard signs—Crank or Rockefeller. This was on a KXAR news program Monday morning and we thought it would appear in the Hope Star Monday night.

We can understand Mrs. Bruner's great interest in the Crank campaign, being in the family of our state representative, but we who have worked in three campaigns for the Governor and know from past experience the disappearance of hundreds of Rockefeller signs, can not sympathize with her too much over the disappearance of a few Crank signs (no pun intended). We are just as interested as she is in catching the thieves who steal yard signs, hence our $25 reward.

(3) Mrs. Bruner believes Marion Crank is a "man of outstanding, fine character". We beg to differ. Any man who pads the public payroll as he has done by putting his wife and children on the legislative payroll — even the 8-year-old — is not our idea of a man of "outstanding, fine character"!

Finally, if you believe as we do that Mr. Rockefeller deserves a second term as your governor, and want to show your support, call the Republican Headquarters (8705) for a yard sign, or better still come by and see us at 118 E. Third and pick up one yourself. We trust the police will help us keep it in your yard! Sincerely,

T. O. PORTER

Indians Order White Off Reservation

WINNEMUCCA, Nev. (AP) — Shoshone Indians, in full war paint and carrying rifles, are creeping up on white hunters and ordering them off the reservation.

"They looked up and saw us, and that was enough," said John Pope, an Indian also known as "Rolling Thunder," as he described one "raid" Monday. "One man's mouth was moving but nothing came out. I gave them 15 minutes to get off the reservation. They made it."

Pope, a spokesman for the Shoshones, claimed the white hunters "are wasting deer while our people go hungry."

Elko.

Pope was here with Stanley Smart, an Indian convicted Oct. 11 and fined $100 for hunting and possession of deer out of season.

Smart filed an appeal Monday, contending that as an Indian he has the right to hunt regardless of seasons set by the white man, on or off the reservation. State game protectors said Smart was not on the reservation when arrested.

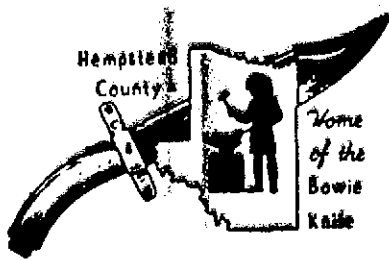

Pope said the Indians intend to keep white hunters off the reservation. He declined to say how many Indians were in the "scare party," but said their rifles were unloaded.

"We intend to close all of the eastern Nevada reservation land to white hunters and fishermen," said Pope. "We're not making threats to anyone. We believe in law and we believe in justice. We only want to gather food for our people."

Ozark Autumn
Political Vandals
4 Colors Today

I once knew a woman who confessed that as a girl she never learned how to pluck a chicken - operating on the sound principle that what you don't know about you won't have to do. And the reverse principle is that the more you have to offer the more work is piled upon you.

In recent years The Star has taken to reporting the oncoming Autumn color show in the Ozarks as early frosts bite the hardwoods of North Arkansas - and, naturally enough, about now we are getting repeated telephone calls: "How's the Ozarks show coming along?"

Well, it's been on the slow slide. I passed up the War Eagle handicraft fair this past week-end, after visiting the 1966 and 1967 shows, largely because I guessed the foliage had not yet begun to turn sufficiently for good color photographs.

But this morning I made two telephone checks with fellow newspapermen along the Arkansas-Missouri border - at the Rogers Daily News in northwest Arkansas, and the weekly Baxter Bulletin of Mountain Home in north central Arkansas. They made identical reports.

There have been several light frosts and the foliage is now starting to turn. But the first big killing frost hasn't struck as yet. It's an educated guess from both Rogers and Mountain Home that foliage color will reach a peak this coming week-end. So if you load your camera and start packing for the week-end this Friday or Saturday it ought to be a good gamble.

Why go nearly 300 miles to the Missouri-Ill. country to see the Autumn color show when we eventually get frost and turned foliage here at home? Well, the Ozarks have more hardwoods than we do - better reds and yellows in the frosted foliage. Our local reds show up in a disappointing rusty hue, as evidenced by hundreds of Kodachromes and Ektachromes in our files.

Letters to the editor published yesterday and today report systematic vandalism to political signs put up locally by both Democrats and Republicans. This is an offense second only to the stealing of votes at the ballot box.

Certainly no responsible worker in either party organization is connected with this underhanded practice. It's vandalism of the same childish streak that causes school-building windows to be smashed in the dead of night.

Campaign signs are an integral part of the democratic process, and, being of a public nature, suffer from the same vandalism that attacks most public property in these uncertain days.

I note that one of the local party campaign organizations has posted a reward for the detection of persons vandalizing any campaign sign. This is to say that The Star will add a matching amount to any reward paid by either party.

This is a recurrence of the vandal trouble we experienced with our paper - vending machines, several being damaged and one actually stolen. We got it back, but only after continuous advertising of a substantial reward - and we still relish the idea of seeing someone locked up in prison.

Win or lose in the election, all Americans are united for law and order - and fair conduct of a political campaign.

Today marks our 15th four-color production, on Page 8. It's still as much of an adventure as when we came off with the first one, "Hog Killing Time in Arkansas," Jan. 28, 1967.

It's a complicated and tedious procedure. You have to break the original color transparency down to four production negatives - one for each of the three primary colors, and for black - then they are measured electrically on a densitometer, and a check-proof is made. If the readings on the densitometer are favorable, and all the colors show in the proof, then you go to press - hopefully.

Always you are writing before seeing the result, as I am now - hopefully.

14 Released in a Short Cease-fire

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) - Enemy gunners today shelled the third U.S. military headquarters in the past three days, indicating that a new wave of attacks against major American bases may have begun.

About 30 rounds of 102-pound Russian-made artillery shells slammed into the headquarters of the U.S. 3rd Marine Division at Dong Ha and a nearby South Vietnamese village just below the eastern flank of the demilitarized zone. Three American Marines and three South Vietnamese civilians were killed. The wounded were 15 U.S. Marine, Navy and Army personnel, two South Vietnamese soldiers and nine civilians.

The headquarters of the U.S. Army in Vietnam at Long Binh, 12 miles northeast of Saigon, was shelled Sunday. The next day enemy gunners zeroed in on the headquarters of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division at Dong Tam, 35 miles southwest of Saigon.

The new shelling came as a 35-hour cease-fire along the coast of North Vietnam to permit the release of 14 North Vietnamese prisoners of war held by the United States ended at noon.

One U.S. military source said he assumed fighter-bombers were resuming raids on North Vietnamese supply columns and barges in the 288-square mile coastal area that was declared off limits at midnight Sunday.

The cease-fire negotiated in the Laotian capital of Vientiane, silenced enemy shore batteries and anti-aircraft guns along a 25-mile strip of coastline to permit a U.S. Navy ship to land the 14 POWs south of the North Vietnamese city of Vinh.

U.S. officials said there were no reports the truce had been violated.

While North Vietnamese leaders in Hanoi were believed debating whether to accept U.S. terms for an end to the bombing of the North, U.S. jets continued their raids on the North Vietnamese panhandle outside the cease-fire area, and spokesmen said more "strikes as usual" are planned for Wednesday.

The Viet Cong's Liberation Press Agency said today that the United States has no right to demand reciprocity for a bombing halt in the North, and that the Paris peace talks will progress only after an unconditional bombing halt.

The lull in ground fighting, now in its fourth week, continued. Some see it as a possible de-escalation move by Hanoi, but the U.S. Command feels differently.

The command announced today that allied troops seized more than 300 tons of enemy munitions and food during September. Most of these supplies were found in the 3rd Corps area that includes Saigon and in the five northernmost provinces below the demilitarized zone.

Life's Complications Are Visited on Some More Than on Others

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) - I have long been convinced that life's complications are visited upon me to a greater degree than upon anyone else, but I revised my opinion after hearing my friend Pat's terrible tale of telephone trouble.

It should have all been so simple. Pat was preparing to move from Connecticut to an apartment in Manhattan and, since she believes in planning ahead, she declared her intentions to the telephone company well in advance.

She wrote two letters - one to the Manhattan branch, asking that service be started on moving day, and another to the local office, requesting that her phone be disconnected on the same day.

Not long afterwards she received a call from this latter office expressing gratitude for her patronage and regret at its termination, plus an offer to perform any further service.

"Well," said Pat, "I'd appreciate it if you'd put in a word with New York, and try to get

The victims were the driver, Cpl. Larry J. Davis, 21, of Batesville, Ark., and two passengers, Pfc. Gary D. Johnson, 20, of Sidney, Ark., and Pfc. Ronald S. Sosnas, 18, of Woodside, N.Y.

Verbal Blows Traded by Candidates

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Republican Richard M. Nixon says "the peace and security of the American people demand the defeat" of Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey. And Humphrey says Nixon "has not had the foresight of a man of peace."

While the two major party candidates traded verbal punches Monday, third party candidate George C. Wallace jabbed at hecklers who interrupted his efforts to spell out his farm program.

Nixon called Humphrey a do-nothing candidate on law and order and said the United States cannot survive as a free nation "with four more years of the kind of crime wave" Nixon blamed partly on Democratic administration policies.

"The peace and security of the American people," he said in Cincinnati, "demand the defeat of Hubert Humphrey and the election of new leadership which will restore peace abroad, and bring peace to our crime-torn cities at home."

Humphrey challenged Nixon's peace credentials while campaigning in New York and later gave what he called an indication of his own.

"I have not supported massive escalation," Humphrey said. "I have sought de-escalation and bombing pauses. That indicates the kind of man Hubert Humphrey is."

Humphrey welcomed Texas Gov. John Connally to his presidential campaign today and predicted he'll carry the state Nov. 5.

Connally sat out an earlier Humphrey tour through Texas but has since joined Sen. Ralph Yarborough, leader of the liberal Democratic party wing long at odds with Connally, in supporting Humphrey.

"When you've got John Connally and Ralph Yarborough on your side how can you lose," the candidate said in remarks prepared for a Fort Worth airport rally.

Humphrey said Monday he has an "upward curve" of public support and will come from behind to win the election.

Nixon earlier claimed Humphrey had conceded on nationwide television Sunday he could

Teacher's Strike Idles N.Y. Schools

NEW YORK (AP) - The nation's largest city today faced the greatest municipal labor crisis in its history with its 1.1 million pupil public school system paralyzed by a teachers' strike, its police patrolmen engaged in a work slowdown and its firemen set for their own slowdown.

Besieged by the ranks of organized labor, Mayor John V. Lindsay again called Monday on the teachers' union to end its walkout "for the sake of the city," and told the uniformed services he would not bow to their wage demands.

But if the firemen go through with their slowdown, nearly 90,000 city employees will be engaged in either strikes or job action against the administration by Wednesday.

Lindsay declared he would "stand firm" on earlier agreements with the police and firemen saying that to reopen negotiations would set off a chain reaction among city employees and produce "complete anarchy in labor relations."

During the day police said 2,049 of the 23,000 members of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association called in sick while those who reported for work continued to bypass traffic of fenders and perform "by the book."

The 10,500 - member United Firefighters Association also voted to reject the city's contract offer and said that on Wednesday firemen would stop performing nonemergency duties.

Rejecting the mayor's plea for a school truce, Albert Shanker, president of the 55,000-member United Federation of Teachers, said the strike would continue until the local board, administrator and principals in a Brooklyn experimental school district were removed.

The walkout, which has already cost 17 of 28 school days from the fall term, stems from the ouster of 80 white teachers in the predominantly Negro and Puerto Rican Ocean Hill-Brownsville district.

Democratic and Republican legislative leaders called on Dr. James E. Allen Jr., state education commissioner, and the state Board of Regents to use their powers to open the schools.

The action came after Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said he would not call a special session of the legislature to deal with the crisis. He said Lindsay has "the power as mayor of the city to handle the situation."

In the Bronx a group of parents and striking teachers sought signatures on petitions asking Rockefeller to remove Lindsay from office. The governor is empowered to do so on charges and after a hearing.

All Number Phone Dialing Coming Soon

Telephone number "name" prefixes in Hope and Bodcaw change to all-numeral prefixes effective with the delivery of the new telephone directory, according to Southwestern Bell Manager Jack Bayles.

This new telephone numbering plan is known as All Number Calling (ANC).

Bayles said that about three-fourths of the telephones in the United States have already been converted to All Number Calling. The change to a new numbering system is necessary because of the tremendous growth in the number of telephones. Telephone companies would eventually run out of numbers if they did not convert to All Number Calling, he said.

Bayles explained that for most telephone users in Hope and Bodcaw, the telephone number prefix is the only part of the number that will change.

He noted, too, that the location of the all-number prefix on the telephone dial will be the same as the present "name" prefix, meaning that telephone users will continue dialing just as they do now.

A typical Hope number "PR7-4601" will change to "777-4601."

Space Astronauts Back Safely in Spite of an Upsidedown Landing

Space Planners Now Considering Shot to Moon by Christmas

By JIM STROTHMAN

AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) - With 100 per cent of their flight objectives achieved, Apollo 7 astronauts handed space agency planners enough data to consider launching the next three Apollo spacemen around the moon at Christmas time.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said no final decision will be made until mid-November, after results of Apollo 7's 11-day mission are studied.

But thanks to Apollo 7 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr., Donn F. Eisele and Walter Cunningham, a circumlunar assignment for the Apollo 8 crew remains a strong possibility.

Despite Apollo 7's achievements, the decision whether to send the Apollo 8 pilots, Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders, around the moon will not come easy.

Once astronauts start heading for the moon, there is no chance for them to get back to earth for more than seven days—the amount of time it takes to fly to the moon and back. Apollo engines are not powerful enough for the crew to turn around before reaching the moon, if something goes wrong.

In the 11-day flight, Navy Capt. Schirra, Air Force Maj. Eisele and Cunningham, a civilian, proved that Apollo's life-support systems can keep three men alive long enough for a round trip to the moon.

They showed that the craft's main engine can be fired for short steering maneuvers and long durations, as will be done to kick Apollo spacecrafts into orbit around the moon and back to earth.

Their computer-driven guidance and navigation system operated "as advertised," officials said. The worldwide Apollo tracking network successfully demonstrated it can operate the sophisticated communications links developed for man-to-the-moon flights.

20 Anxious Moments in Locating

by VERN HAUGLAND
Associated Press Writer

ABOARD USS ESSEX (AP) - Apollo 7's astronauts rode their "magnificent flying machine" to an upside-down landing in the Atlantic Ocean today and searchers had 20 anxious moments before they located the spacecraft floating safely in gentle seas.

Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr., Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele and Walter R. Cunningham rode a helicopter to a touchdown on the deck of this aircraft carrier less than an hour after their sensational 11-day flight that put the United States on the doorstep to the moon.

Their capsule had parachuted to a landing just five miles north of this aircraft carrier, stationed 330 miles south-south-east of Bermuda.

But heavy clouds and a light rain hampered the recovery operation.

It was made more difficult because Apollo 7 landed bottoms up, as was expected, temporarily submerging their radio antenna.

Several helicopters from the Essex fanned over a wide area and finally zeroed in on intermittent signals from the spacecraft beacon.

Twenty minutes after the 7:13 a.m. EDT touchdown, a helicopter, Recovery 3, spotted the upside-down craft. By the time it was overhead minutes later, the astronauts had inflated flotation bags and turned it right side up.

After talking with the astronauts, the helicopter radioed: "Their physical status is good - all are in good shape."

Swimmers leaped into the water and secured Apollo 7. Schirra, Cunningham and Eisele opened their hatch, climbed into a liferaft and were lifted one-by-one into the helicopter.

The copter sped to the Essex, landing on the deck at 8:08 a.m., just 55 minutes after the splashdown.

All three looked tired and shaky, but otherwise in good physical condition as they stepped from the copter onto a red carpet that had been rolled over the deck.

They rubbed their heavy beards and smiled as they walked across the deck, acknowledging the cheers of hundreds of sailors who lined the deck. A band welcomed them aboard.

A large banner read: "Essex says hello to Wally, Don and Walt."

13 Seniors Join National Honor Society

Thirteen seniors of Hope High School were inducted into the National Honor Society in a formal ceremony in the school auditorium, Monday morning, October 21.

They are Lee Almond, Donna Connelly, Sherry Crank, Linda Cummings, Robyn Calloway, Jan Herring, Jerry McWilliams, Butch Reeves, Junanne Reynolds, Brenda Rosenbaum, Sue Russell, Simmons Smith, and Larry White.

The seven spring inductees, representing five percent of the senior class, presented the program in an original drama entitled, "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way."

Donnis Langston represented an old man who had traveled the Road to Life. He listened to the experiences of the younger travelers including Tim Ross, leader; Susan McCain, character; and integrity; Pat Westbrook, service; Jenny Callicott, scholarship; Carroll Beck, the past; Carla Turner, president of the National Honor Society, then presented the initiates to Principal Joe Parentine for induction.
